

REPORT (Cine Club-2023)

A.B.N.Seal College 'Cine Club', an ardent enterprise by the P.G.Department of Bengali, marks the fulfilment of a collective vision of the faculty members of A.B.N. Seal College. The Club raised the curtain by the screening of Chaplin's 'The Great Dictator', on 06.04. 23, since being followed by zestful screenings of the choicest of Indian and International cinema. The movie screenings are attended not only by the students and the Teachers of the college, but also by local movie enthusiasts. The screenings are usually followed by discussions on the movie and its making, which often end with mirthful intellectual exchanges.

The screenings are generally scheduled on the second and fourth Saturdays of a month, however, the screening schedules vary according to other academic and administrative engagements of the teachers and students.

The cine club is a colourful addition to the vibrant cultural landscape of A.B.N.Seal College. The Club aspires to become a hub of cine-culture in North and North-East Bengal, a humble ambition which goes at par with the legacy of A.B.N.Seal College.
