On
‘Research Methodology in Sanskrit Literature’
9th March to 15th March, 2024

Organized by
Post Graduate Department of Sanskrit
Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College
Cooch Behar-736101

About the College

Established in 1888 by Maharaja Nripendra Narayan, the Victoria College was the crown jewel of Higher Education of the princely state of Cooch Behar, as it was the prime seat of graduate level education in undivided Northern Bengal. Later, the Institution flourished under the leadership of renowned philosopher and educationist Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal. In 1970, when the college was taken up by the Government of West Bengal and was brought under West Bengal Education Service, it was renamed after its legendary Principal Acharya Seal. Since 2016, this college is affiliated to the Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University.

Post Graduate Department of Sanskrit

Sanskrit Department of Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College is one of the oldest Departments of this glorious Educational Institution. It ranks among the first few departments of this college in the field of academic excellence. It is a pioneer centre for higher studies in Sanskrit in North Bengal. The Department has been enriched by contributions of many erudite scholars in different fields of Sanskrit studies. Scholars like Professor Bishnupada Bhattacharya, Professor Dilip Kumar Kanjilal, Professor Bidyut Baran Ghosh, Professor Kalipada Giri served the department. Many renowned scholars are the alumni of this department.

The Sanskrit Department of Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College deserved the honour of the only centre for running the Post Graduate Study under the University of North Bengal from 2006. From 2016 the Department has been continuing its UG & PG course under Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University.
